SUPREME COUNCIL MAY DECIDE FATE OF HUN VESSELS

Surrendered Warships May Be Stripped and Sunk In Ocean

ITALIANS AND FRENCH ARE OPPOSED TO DESTRUCTION

Would Salvage Big Warriors For Junk—Say It Can't Be Done

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Paris, Feb. 24.—While the supreme war council has not discussed the disposition of surrendered German warships the naval experts of the council have studied the subject, British and American officers agreeing that the proper solution of the question will be to sink them in deep water.

French and Italian officers do not take this view and if the experts do not soon reach an agreement the matter may be taken up directly by the supreme war council.

The British navy has captured the greatest number of German vessels taken during the war, and the British delegates feel they have a greater interest in the determination of the question and they have the weight of the opinion of American experts with them. There are 74 German warships, aggregating half a million tons, of an estimated bidding cost of $200,000,000, at Scapa Flow. These naval vessels cannot be used profitably in commerce, are too heavily engined, and have no cargo space, a fact which has been proved. It has also been demonstrated by American warships that these vessels cannot be broken up at a profit.

The Italian government claims to have broken up the famous old battleship Duella at a profit, but no one else has been able to do so well. The turret and side armor plates could not be utilized except at great expense, and even the boilers and engines would be unsuitable for commercial uses. It is pointed out that it would be possible to detach the navigating instruments and much brass work, which would be done in any case but the recommendation of British and American experts is that the hulls should be sunk.

One naval expert of the peace commission said today there were important naval reasons for complete destruction of the German ships. It has been suggested that they should be distributed among the victors in proportion to the wartime losses sustained by each. On that basis the American share would be absurdly small. Then, he said, the distribution might involve disagreements and leave bad feeling between the victors. The suggestion of an enlargement of rival building programs at great expense. At the same time the German ships would not fit into any of the entente navies.

When the question of the disposition of the surrendered warships first came up in December the American delegation to the peace conference was reported in Paris as in favor of sinking the vessels and at a hearing before the house committee on naval affairs early in January, Rear Admiral Rodman, who commanded the American fleet in the North Sea during the war, advocated this method of disposing of the captured ships.

President Wilson's attitude on the question, however, was declared in Washington to be against the sinking of the German ships and Secretary Daniels expressed himself as personally opposed to such a course.

REPS TO ATTACK GOVERNOR COX

Message Criticizing Language In Anti-German Propaganda Bill, Stirs 'Em Up.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Columbus, Feb. 24.—Reply to Governor Cox's message to the legislature last week on the anti-German propaganda bill was expected from Republican members this week, open hostilities between the legislature and the governor marked the close of last week's session, and in all probability they will be reopened soon. Republican leaders are expected to have planned a counter offensive in regard to the bill instead of rescinding action as Governor Cox suggested in his message.

The governor's message was held up in the house pending an investigation before coming to the records. The senate has ordered the message printed, but it may be rescinded, it was said. The bill calls for the prohibition of teaching German in Ohio public schools. Charges were made by the governor that the language of the bill is "intimidating" and that it will have the effect of "creating preserves of treason" because it permits the teaching of the language in private and parochial schools.

WILL LOOP-THE-LOOP 200 TIMES IN PLANE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Dayton, Feb. 24.—Lieutenant Chick Keegan, an American pilot, left the Dayton airport at noon today with the determination to break all loop the loop records with an airplane. His goal was 200 times, and immediately after rising from the McCook experimental field he began to loop the loop and was last seen half hour later after traveling a mile from the field and disappearing to the southwest. He was still looping the last seen of him and had passed the hundred mark.

PEACE IN EUROPE IMPOSSIBLE WHILE BOLSHEVIKI REIGN

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Boston, Feb. 24.—Ambassador Francis home from Russia for the first time in two years had several conferences with President Wilson while coming over on the George Washington and made several recommendations for action on the part of the allied and American governments for meeting the Bolshevik menace and restoring Russia to the family of nations. Mr. Francis probably will disclose them later when he appears before one of the congressional committees. He probably will remain in Washington some time, advising the state department and congress on the situation as he saw it on leaving. "A reign of terror instituted by the Bolsheviks with the purpose of maintaining themselves in power is prevailing in central and northern Russia," said the ambassador. "The outrages they have committed are incredible. I think it impossible to restore peace in Europe with chaos prevailing in Russia. In fact, with Germany practically unopposed industrially I am persuaded that if a peace is negotiated with Bolshevik rule continuing in Russia, Germany in 20 years or less will be stronger than she was at the beginning of the war. She is familiar with the Russian character and for a generation has been studying it to influence it. If this turns out Germany instead of having been defeated will have gained a victory."

RADIO PLANT AT BORDEAUX SOLD TO FRENCH GOVT.

NAVAL FORCE ABROAD IS DEMOBILIZED PROMPTLY

America Had 70,000 Men At Fifty Shore Naval Stations

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Boston, Feb. 24.—Practical demobilization of all the United States naval establishments in European waters, the sale of the great La Fayette wireless station at Bordeaux to the French government at a price of approximately $4,000,000, and many hitherto unpublished facts of American naval activities in the war were announced here today by Assistant Secretary Roosevelt who arrived with President Wilson on the steamship George Washington.

For the last month Mr. Roosevelt has been in Europe demobilizing the naval force, liquidating contracts and settling claims. Good progress was made in all of the work, he said, and the British and French governments have met the United States half way in the settlement of claims and disposal of material.

On the trip over Mr. Roosevelt disclosed to the officers and crew of the George Washington how the United States had spent more than $30,000,000 laying the mine barrage against submarines in the North Sea and how by use of the navy which the United States brought into the war the submarine were driven from the coasts, away from the harbor mouths, out to sea, where their deadly work would be more difficult and how the entry of the navy into the war initiated an effective campaign against the U-boats which previously had been conducting the offensive.

A few realize, Mr. Roosevelt, "that the American navy had 54 shore bases of various kinds in European waters and the Azores, including destroyer stations and mine laying bases, although the majority were naval aviation bases from which more than 200 American airplanes operated. We had more than 70,000 men at these bases and on ships operating from them. We leased docks and buildings in addition constructed hundreds of hangars, piers, hospitals, store houses and other buildings.

"50,000 officers and men now have been sent home and all the flying stations and bases with a very few exceptions have been evacuated. All material of future value has been sent home. Portable houses, provisions and motor trucks have been sold to the Red Cross and the bag and what remained of lumber and old salvage material has been sold to the British and French governments.

"The great La Fayette radio station near Bordeaux was intended to insure communication between Washington and the army and navy in case the cable system was cut off or communication interfered with by German submarines. It has eight towers and could communicate with the United States day and night. It was built by the navy. I arranged with the French government that we shall complete the station, which is now being finished, and they will then take it over at what it cost us, about twenty-two million francs."

OBJECTORS RETURN PAY FOR TIME IN PRISON

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Feb. 24.—Nearly all the conscientious objectors recently released by the army at Fort Leavenworth have returned the money paid them on discharge holding that the scruples which prevented them from fighting also forbade the acceptance of pay for non-combatant service, which relieved a fighter for the front. ## U. S. MERCHANT MARINE IS BIG

Senator Says Nation Will Control 19 Million Tons By Next Year.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Feb. 24.—Discussing the American merchant marine problem in the senate today, Senator Ransdell of Louisiana, predicted that within a few months the shipping board would own one-half the ocean-going merchant vessels in the United States over 5000 gross tons, and that by 1920 ship construction in this country would have increased the total tonnage under the American flag to approximately 19,000,000 tons.

"These figures," the senator said, "lead to the conclusion that from the quantitative point of view, looking only at the objective of securing an aggregate amount of tonnage under our flag commensurate with the maritime interests of the United States the problem of the American merchant marine is solved."

Of the predicted 19,000,000,000 tons the Louisiana estimated 14,525,500 tons would be owned by the shipping board. All the authority of the board to operate vessels expires by limitation six months after the formal proclamation of peace, he said, it was essential that legislation be provided whereby the operation may be continued.

Stating his opposition to a government subsidy, Senator Ransdell outlined three possible solutions of the merchant marine problem as follows:

First, complete government ownership and operation, all ships, docks, wharves and terminals, on the same principle under which Roumania and Belgium operated their shipping before the war, second, ownership and operation through a public corporation controlled by the government and the same method by which the war department operates the Panama railroad and steamship company; third, government ownership of the vessels and the employment of private agencies for their operation.

The strength of the merchant marine, however, he emphasized, lies in the number of trained, alert, resourceful shipping men, whom it can call to its service on which watchful preservation and continued work the success of shipping venture depends.

AUDITOR HELD AS AID IN ROBBERY

General Electric Employee Arrested As Accomplice In $12,000 Robbery Last December.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Everett, Mass., Feb. 24.—Charles S. Whitmore, general auditor for the General Electric company, was arrested at his home in Malden today charged with conspiracy and assault, in connection with the attack on Frank R. Brown, assistant paymaster at the local plant of the company, who was held up Dec. 20, and robbed of the weekly payroll amounting to $12,000.

Louis Bennett of Boston, familiarly known as "Poco" Bennett and Charles Mortali, also known as Charles Celeste, were arrested today in the same connection, a charge of assault being placed against them. Four men who were arrested in New York are already under indictment.

Brown had been to a bank in Everett to draw the weekly payroll of the company's foundry here and was on his way back to the plant with the money in a leather hand bag when another machine suddenly drove across the roadway and Brown's driver had to come to a halt. Almost immediately a half dozen men stepped out and forced Brown to deliver the bag. Their appearance was so sudden that neither Brown nor a guard who was riding with him had opportunity to resist. As the highway men turned and started away one of them fired point blank at Brown, seriously wounding him. He received at a Boston hospital after several weeks.

ARREST 24 I. W. W. FOR PLOT TO KILL PRESIDENT; ALL ARE SPANIARDS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
New York, Feb. 24.—Federal attorneys and secret service men today were examining the personal effects and papers of 14 Spaniards, members of the Industrial Workers of the World, who were arrested here yesterday on suspicion that two of their number were concerned in a plot to assassinate President Wilson.

The men arrested here are: Eduardo Parades, a Cuban, said to be the leader of the Spanish I. W. W.; Pasquale Sarrano, Jose Gomez, Jose Riga, Juan Marquez, Otilio Planco, Leonard Garza, Juan Rodriguez, Jose Gonzales, and Jose Antonio Pena.

All are Spaniards and nine of them are aliens.

Secret service men here attach more importance to the arrest in New York of two "Philadelphia" men, Medina Vela and Elario Orestiza, than to the roundup of the 14 Spaniards in this city.

HUN SCIENTISTS WHINE FOR FOOD IN LATEST NOTE

Ask Pres. Wilson to Send Experts From Scandinavian States

WANTS ALLIED BLOCKADE ON FOOD SUPPLIES LIFTED

Assert Germans Do Not Deserve Suffering From Hunger

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
London, Feb. 24.—Thirty six prominent members of scientific and medical faculties of German universities and twenty two mayors of leading cities in that country have addressed a joint appeal to President Wilson and University faculties in neutral countries, urging the speedy appointment of a commission of experts from the Scandinavian states, Holland, Switzerland and Spain for the purpose of studying the food situation in Germany. Mr. Wilson is asked to designate an American medical expert as an added member of the commission in which entente countries will be given the privilege of representation if they so choose.

The memorial says:

"Germany has laid down her arms upon being assured a peace of justice based on President Wilson's 14 points. The conditions of the armistice have made her absolutely defenseless. In spite of the mutual agreement to suspend all hostilities, Germany's opponents continue the hunger blockade, the most severe and most crushing of all weapons applied against her during the war. Testimony adduced the medical authorities in Germany prove that the blockade has cost the country eight hundred lives.

"The petition claims that clandestine traffic in food has resulted in price increases over peace time standards ranging from one thousand to three thousand per cent. It says, 'which deprives millions of workers and women and children of food and prevents the people from obtaining the most elementary necessities. The number of neuroses caused by the monotony of daily fare during the last four and a half years runs into the millions.'

"The petition further asserts that in addition to physical sufferings growing out of the continuance of the blockade, the food stringency in Germany has produced 'psychic and ethical phenomena which threatens to develop into broadening centers for Bolshevism.'

"Among the signers are Professors Elser, Czerny, Bunnen, Doederlein, Von Murek, and others. The German Medical Association of Greater Berlin heads the list of mayors who signed the memorandum, which in conclusion declares that the problem of rationing big cities in Germany is beset by gravest dangers and that 'the German people are undeservingly being driven into a hunger catastrophe.'

President Is To Land In Boston This Afternoon For Speech

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Boston, Feb. 24.—President Wilson landed at Commonwealth pier at 11:42 o'clock a. m.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Boston, Feb. 24.—President Wilson was the guest of Boston today. The city was not alone, however, in extending to the chief executive a welcome home from his labors at the peace conference in Paris, for thousands of persons from all parts of New England arrived on early trains to swell the throng in the streets through which was arranged that he should pass on his way from Commonwealth pier to his hotel in the back bay district.

For the greater part of the crowd this was the only opportunity to see the President, as Mechanics Hall, where he was to deliver his early address of the day, seats but 7,000 persons, and all the tickets for the meeting were allotted several days ago. Buildings all along the route of the parade were ablaze with flags and bunting and recollections of the international character of the President's recent activities were shown in the frequent display of flags with nations which were allied with the United States in the war.

The great steamer, George Washington, on which the President and his party made the voyage from Bristol, dropped anchor in Quarantine shortly after dark last night. The ship was discovered when it was suddenly running through a dense fog, headed directly for Thatcher's Island, off Cape Ann. It was the destroyer Harding, running ahead of the guard ship, which discovered the danger and gave a warning signal. Engines were reversed and the ship was stopped, a thousand yards from shore in deep water.

A short distance off Boston Harbor, the President's ship was met by an escort of "night" submarines sent from the navy yard here. The ship proceeded to Quarantine and the Presidential party remained on board overnight.

It had been previously arranged that they should be brought up to Commonwealth pier this forenoon by the guard cutter Ossipee, and that the George Washington should then leave for New York to land the 2,000 troops who returned with the President. The storm which had hung over the coast for two days passed off to sea last night, and the President's ship, shifting of the wind to the west had taken the chill out of the air, and the streets were dry.

The meeting at Mechanics Hall was set for 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon. All the baggage of the Presidential party of 45 persons was brought ashore and transferred to a special train which was made ready to start for Washington with the President and his associates at 4:30 p. m.

The Ossipee, a former coast guard cutter now in naval service was the leader of the welcoming flotilla. She displaced the flag from the cutter, and Spencer S. Wood, head of this naval district, who was aboard and she carried also the official greeting party, including Mayor Peters and Major General Clarence R. Edwards.

Other steamers were crowded with Bostonians and citizens of the metropolitan district who were fortunate in the ticket distribution. Led by a submarine chaser and with eight other submarine chasers flanking them, the fleet proceeded down the harbor with bands playing patriotic airs and the color guard at the stern. The ships in its long and every passenger on the "coming ships" waved the stars and stripes.

Every ship at the wharves and at anchor in the harbor displayed all the flags in its long and every passenger on the "coming ships" waved the stars and stripes.

Those who came from France with the Presidential party, on the transport were not forgotten in the general celebration. Delegations from Red Cross, Y. M. C. A., Knights of Columbus and Jewish welfare organizations were on board some of the city boats prepared to assist in extending a hearty welcome to the soldiers. They carried supplies of doughnuts, coffee, chewing gum, cigarettes, stationery and newspapers.

Joseph P. Tumulty, secretary to the President, spent the night aboard the George Washington with President Wilson and came ashore today with the Presidential party. He was believed to have an engrossed copy of the six billion dollar war revenue bill with him and it is thought possible President Wilson might have signed the bill before he landed or at least soon after he set foot on shore.

MAY GET HELP FOR POST OFFICE

Special Inspector Will Be Sent to City to Learn Need of More Help.

Co-operating with Postmaster F. T. Mercer the Chamber of Commerce is meeting with some success in an effort to secure more help for the local postoffice.

The complaints have been many relative to the deliveries of mail, and to the service at the office. The Chamber of Commerce has been notified that a special inspector will be sent here from Washington this week.

A comparative investigation has shown that while the volume of business transacted in Newark has been larger than in other towns of the same size they have more help. It seems that the Newark office lacks at least four more employees to bring the service up to standard.

ALL KINDS OF WEATHER DISHED OUT SATURDAY

The weather man must have been all out of sorts Saturday and viciously turned over every page of his big weather book in a hurried effort to find something to his liking for the climatic conditions on that day ran the length of the 37 varieties.

From midnight Friday to late in the morning Saturday the town was obscured in a mist, the drop of which was as heavy in some places as rain. A cold damp air prevailed.

The clouds then flitted with the sunshine and Old Sol became red coy in the early afternoon, establishing himself in a sky of azure and the atmosphere had the warmth and glow of a late May. In fact, one unconsciously looked for the blossoms.

Then for a teaser, and out of what seemed a clear sky sharp little showers became the order, and with the sun shining brightly through the rain, the town was presented with the most gorgeous and perfect rainbow ever seen here.

A perfect arc, it stood out clearly for some time in a glory of colors.

Black, heavy clouds rolling up from the south and west soon obscured it, and we had a regular made to order summer storm. Hail, of considerable size, staged a bombardment, and lightning and thunder accompanied by a wind of destructive propensities swept over. The rain then abated but the wind blew at gale force during the night, bringing colder weather.

The good die young, but who wants to be a dead one?

DAILY HEALTH TALKS

The Troubles Women Have BY L. MAC LEAN, M. D.

Probably no man in America was ever better qualified to successfully treat the diseases peculiar to women than Dr. Pierce of Buffalo, N. Y. The cases that come to him run into many thousands, giving him an experience that rarely comes to any one else. Dr. Pierce found that in nearly every case there were certain vegetable growths which rarely failed to give prompt relief in those feminine disorders from which so many women suffer. He combined these roots and herbs into a temperance medicine that he called Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, for that is precisely what it was. This medicine is sold in both liquid and tablet form by druggists everywhere. Favorite Prescription is a distinct remedy for women and acts directly upon the organs that characterize the sex. It is not necessary to take a long course of treatment with this standard medicine. A weakly, sickly, backache, headache, nervous, despondent woman, with regular or irregular pains—with feminine disorders that come in youth or middle age—is pretty sure to find in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription the exact remedy that her condition calls for, and to find it after a very few doses taken. Why women should allow themselves to stay sick when a very little money spent for this remedy will probably make them well, is something no one can explain.

All women who suffer from feminine disorders are invited to write the Faculty of the Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., for free confidential consultation and advice, no charge being made for this high professional service. This will enable every woman to benefit by the advice of the distinguished corps of physicians which Dr. Pierce has gathered about him in his celebrated Buffalo institution.

When constipation is present with feminine disorders, Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets should be taken along with Favorite Prescription. Try them now!

...and with the 200 men who sailed for the Peace Conference

A fact:

For the 200 or more men of note who sailed on the George Washington for the Peace Conference, more than a dozen different brands of cigarettes were carried in stock by the ship's "canteen." Of these, the cigarette carried and sold in far the largest quantity was Fatima.

FATIMA

A Sensible Cigarette

NOTE—The really big man hasn't any use for "frills." He appreciates the plain but practical Fatima package because he realizes the extra value that's put into the cigarette itself. But chiefly, it's Fatima's taste and the fact that Fatimas never "talk back" that keeps warm the friendship of so many men for Fatima.

HEAVY DOCKET IN POLICE COURT MONDAY

Police officials had a busy time Saturday night gathering in the "souses", fighters and other law violators and as a consequence Mayor Atherton's court was a busy place this morning.

A. S. Muehney, picked up by Captain Charles Hager and Patrolman Charles DeWitt at 2 a. m. Sunday morning, had a half pint of whiskey and $52.82 when searched at the city prison. It also developed that he had left his car in the ditch near the Lutheran church, and it remained there until Sunday morning when it was brought in.

Nine drunks responded to roll call, one of whom was a soldier, and who had exactly five pennies on his person. One of the drunks hailed from Coshocton and was brought in by a taxi-cab driver stated that it was the only way he could get rid of his fare, who had gone to sleep and could not be aroused. All were fined $5 and the costs each.

Two men were up for fighting, one a young man of 19, lately paroled from the Mansfield reformatory. The other was an Italian who had $237 on his person. He was dismissed as it was found the other fellow was at fault and he was assessed $5 and the costs.

John Henry, colored, a denizen of Columbus, was fined $5 and the costs for being drunk and trying to enter a house in Race street which he thought was his own in the Capital City.

A young man was fined $5 and the costs for an assault on James Lytle, crossing watchman at Fifth street. The young man in question wrenched the signal from the watchman's hands, it is alleged. Another young man held for investigation was released.

URGES EASTERN TIME FOR ALL OF OHIO

The Chamber of Commerce has requested the representative and senator from Licking county to support a bill introduced in the legislature to give all Ohio eastern time.

It is felt that Newark would have advantages which she cannot now have if the entire state were in the eastern zone.

Also the senators and congressmen from this district at Washington have been asked to vote against the daylight saving bill. The Chamber of Commerce states that it will mean a great hardship, if, after adopting eastern time, we are asked to still further advance the clocks.

AMUSEMENTS

AUDITORIUM.

"The Smarter Set."
In these up-to-date times, one must be very aggressive to attract the public something which can satisfy the most fastidious, and in booking "The Smarter Set" Manager Fenberg feels that he has secured an attraction that will more than please his patrons. "The Smarter Set" is headed by Salem Tutt Whitney and J. Homer Tutt, the well known comedians who have met with flattering receptions wherever they have appeared, and it is safe to predict that they will duplicate their success when they appear at the Auditorium today. The play this season is entirely new, and is called "Darkest Americans" in two acts and ten scenes, and contains funny situations, with good clean comedy, while the members are conceded to be the best dressed on the stage today, and the company is composed of the cleverest of colored singers, dancers and comedians. In picking the chorus, special attention has been paid to the voices of those engaged so that the proper blending could be obtained. Seats are selling rapidly.

"The Testing of Mildred Vane."
A story of mystery, love and death will be the attraction at the Auditorium theatre tomorrow starring the popular actress, May Allison.

The play is a unique combination of mystery and drama with a dash of light comedy cleverly worked in. Spiritualism figures prominently in the plot which tells the story of a man who believes that it is possible to make the dead suffer through the cruelties inflicted on the living. This man, Dr. Hernandez, loved Mildred's mother, but was refused by her when she married Matthew Vane. After many years with hatred still uppermost in his heart, he decides on a fiendish plot by which he proposes to take revenge on both Mildred and her father, and in this manner—through the sufferings of her loved ones—torture the heart of the dead woman.

Lyman H. Howe's Travel Festival.
One of the interesting features of Lyman H. Howe's newest Travel Festival, which comes to the Auditorium theatre Wednesday afternoon and evening is a brand-new, up-to-the-minute of Americas wonderland, Yellowstone National Park.

The Howe cameraman succeeded in photographing all the beauties and remarkable features of the wondrous park, where there are falls greater by far in height than Niagara, canyons some 2,000 feet deep and more geysers and hot springs than exist in all the rest of the world put together.

Other interesting features of Mr. Howe's latest Travel Festival, which is now making its 49th semi-annual tour, are a journey through Japan, with its sacred temples and shrines; a steamship trip down the mysterious Oklawaha in the Florida glades; a novel and lucid explanation in motion of the insignia of the United States Army; a strenuous canoe fishing expedition into the Canada wilds, glimpses of Italian ski warriors being trained in the Alps; a view of the giant caterpillar tractor moving a two story residence bodily across a city. Seats now on sale.

"Five Thousand an Hour."
Trinity, the most historic of New York churches, built in the time of the British occupancy of that city, and which is situated on lower Broadway in the heart of the financial district, is shown in "Five Thousand an Hour."

The Metro play in which Hale Hamilton will be seen at the Auditorium theatre for a one-day engagement next Thursday. The picture was taken from one of the huge windows of the Broadway offices of Harriman and Company, which faces the church, the necessary permission being given to Director Ralph Ince to set up their camera in this place so as to get a perfect view of the churchyard and the passing throngs on the street below.

The "flash" of Trinity in this production is in strict accordance with the novel from which the play was made for this particular churchyard was mentioned by the author when he made his dynamic young hero point to it and say, "I don't belong in there yet!"

ALHAMBRA.

"For Freedom."
The present attraction at the Alhambra theatre is William Farnum, and some attraction he is. In "For Freedom" a de luxe production which has its initial showing in this city today, this popular William Fox star equals his best previous work on the screen.

His best cannot be excelled—and his admirers will turn out in force to welcome him. This new vehicle affords Mr. Farnum another fine opportunity to show his remarkable dramatic ability, and as a convict who fights against great odds to rehabilitate himself in the eyes of the society, the actor again adds to his well-earned fame. His scenes in the prison, on the battlefield as a paroled man, and in his fight to win the girl he loves are "heart-clutchers" all. In other words, they are Farnum scenes of the true sort.

"All Baba and Forty Thieves."
The Alhambra promises its patrons an unusual treat next Wednesday when it will present for the first time the remarkable William Fox 1919 extravaganza, "All Baba and the Forty Thieves." The story of All Baba is one of the most interesting in that famous old Persian classic, the Arabian Nights. The very fact that this tale has held its popularity for over a thousand years and has been translated into every known language is a guarantee that it has entertainment value enough to interest any audience.

Houdini.

Thoroughly alive to the truth of the old saw that the man who doesn't progress is slipping back, Houdini, the star of B. A. Rolfe's super serial "The Master Mystery," which will be shown on Wednesday and Thursday at the Alhambra theatre, in his constant search for novelties, is offering a prize of $20 in gold to anyone who will send him a suggestion for a feat of self liberation that he accepts.

Houdini's work, as expressed in the serial, includes escaping from bonds of barbed wire, from shackles while in sealed box under water, and many other startling stunts of a daring and thrilling nature.

All suggestions addressed to Manager Fenberg will be forwarded to Houdini, who will personally advise correspondents what disposition he has made of their respective suggestions.

Splendid Photoplay.

John S. Stumar was the cameraman for "The Vamp," the new Ince picture for Paramount in which dainty Enid Bennett will be seen at the Alhambra theatre Friday. Stumar is an artist, yes, a wizard with the lens. He knows every trick of light and color and reflection. He is unvaryingly successful because he studies each scene before "shooting" it. In this picture he got some unusually fine shots and the film as a whole reflects credit on the man behind the camera.

Farnum in "For Freedom."

Owing to the large crowd which flock to see William Farnum whenever he is screened here, Mgr. Fenberg will show him in his latest Fox feature "For Freedom" at both the Alhambra and Auditorium on Tuesday evening. In "For Freedom" this star is shown at his best and one of the biggest moments is the terrific battle by the hero and the man who has taken his sister from her husband. It will be seen at the Auditorium only once and shortly after 8 p. m. Tuesday, so those who come early at 7 p. m. will see a double program, for May Allison, dainty Metro star, is seen in her latest feature "The Testing of Mildred Vane." The performance at the Auditorium commences at 7 p. m., the first feature running about an hour and this is followed by the William Farnum feature, will remember is only shown once at this house and on Tuesday evening.

SCHUMANN-HEINK.

There are many great recitals and concerts given in Columbus, but one name stands out more boldly than all others, that of Mme. Ernestine Schumann-Heink, the greatest contralto who ever lived. Mme. Schumann-Heink is now making a coast to coast tour after which it is proposed to send her around the world. The concert in Memorial Hall, Columbus, which she gives next Friday evening, will in all likelihood be her last one here. Everywhere she appears vast throngs fill the hall. With Mme. Schumann-Heink comes the much-talked-of-bass, Charles Carver, and Frank La Forge, pianist, composer, accompanist. Tickets for this concert may be secured at the ticket office of Miss Kate M. ## BORN OF THE AGES.

Now that the League of Nations is no longer a dream, one cannot but wonder why it was so long in coming. What held it back through all these years? Why world peace made no effective appeal earlier?

How much monarchy, this king business, the petty ambitions for princelings and pretenders who took no note of the rights of their subject peoples, had to do with it. How much the lust for power and increased dominion served to oppose.

For when you get right down to brass tacks this League of Nations idea is the outgrowth of Democratic opposition to the will of autocracy.

Kaiser Bill's dream of world dominion precipitated it. And Uncle Sam backed it to the finish, "put it across."

It was born of the ages of oppression, of life wastage and blood till upon thousands of battlefields, of extortions and sacrifice and enslavement even in the days of peace, of monarchy's ruthless, predatory piracy upon the rights and liberties of the people of the world at large.

For democratic ideas, freedom in the abstract, republican government as America has known it, has virtually been confined to our shores.

And once the President set forth the ideals of America before a stricken and threatened world it took to them like a duck to water.

But for Uncle Sam's tremendous part in the world war a League of Nations would never have been possible. More likely it would have been the United German Monarchy of the World, enslavement for us all.

So far Uncle Sam has come through with flying colors. He must finish in that same gala style. His position before the world must be upheld, his ideals supported, his ambition realized.

Our faith in his future; our gratitude to his army, must not be clouded.

It means a billion more in the Victory Liberty Loan and War Savings Stamps that will enable him to finish right, to wipe clean the slate of war expense.

We must lend him those billions. Must prove our loyalty and confidence. We can do it. We will. Buy U. S. S. now and get ready for the Victory Loan in the spring.

The people who think the League of Nations will bust up at the first little disagreement, should reflect on how the congressmen have enjoyed calling each other liars for going on 120 years now.

I. W. W. prisoners chanted "To hell with America" when they were being taken for deportation. Too bad they did not acquire this sentiment before they ever came to this country.

In accordance with the spirit of the times, it is expected the school children of Newark will walk out because the studies were fixed without their consent.

As visiting firemen like to be taken around to fires, it is natural to assume that when the undertakers travel they would enjoy seeing the best funerals.

The Advocate's DAVE DOTT

A man of plain sense, whose spirit has not been broken to the old Puritan creed by education or terror, will think that it is not necessary for us to travel to heathen countries to learn how mantrously the human mind may be represented. The Denny.—William Elvey Channing.

The tramp passed him once or twice an' then he jest stopped an' looked at him fer quite a spell, but Will never even opened a eye. So the tramp reech over reel ev'ry an' took off Will's watch an' chain. Jest as he was making away with it Will kinda roused up an' says:— "Whatchew a doing, ole top?" he says.

NOT OVERLOOKING THE SALARY.

(Columbus Dispatch.)
The newly-elected president of Germany is a Socialist, and has declared much about the "common people." But he isn't overlooking the salary of the office, and he didn't decline to take the place because the salary was too great. Indeed it is said that he had much to do with fixing the pay of the president—and he certainly fixed it as a high enough figure.

According to the reports from the German congress, or whatever one wants to call the meeting at Weimar, the salary of the president has been fixed at a million marks a year—about $240,000—just twice as much as France pays her president. In this country, where we have money to throw into the rivers we pay our president $75,000 a year and some of the Socialists object to that amount.

Lenine and Trotsky are said to be getting more than a million dollars a year each. Other Bolshevik leaders are getting fabulous amounts from their poor dupes, whom they make believe they are serving for nothing. But they do not get their way through laws they have had passed. That would mean, when they are trying to make their dupes believe everybody ought to receive the same pay. But the Socialist president of Germany is bolder; he gets his million marks a year by law, and it is a matter of record.

OUTWARD BOUND.

(Cleveland Plain Dealer.)
Most Americans will agree with Secretary Wilson when he says that an alien guilty of plotting to overthrow the government "is treated with great leniency when he is simply deported."

He merits much harsher treatment. There is the ring of reasonableness in the secretary's reply to a New York organization which protested against the deportation of dangerous "reds" as subversive of popular liberty. It is pleasant to know that the chief of the labor department holds precisely such views, and that the federal government has no compunction about shipping back to Europe, Europe's red seum that came here uninvited to ply their revolutionary trade. America will be a better place after their departure.

Recent experiences in the northwest and elsewhere indicate the menace the country harbors as long as red terrorism is permitted. Repetition of these experiences is unnecessary. If these imported bolshevists cannot be punished under the espionage act, they can at least be sent to the country of their origin. The quicker they are sent and the larger their numbers the better for the tranquility of the country whose peace they now disturb.

AS TO GERMANY.

(Ohio State Journal.)
The status of Germany is the real issue before the world now. It is supposed she is yet capable of doing a great deal of damage. As long as she opposes disarmament this danger will continue to exist. But President Ebert has shown some mild tendencies in this regard. He says a commission is at work to determine what shall be done about disarmament, at the same time he declares that whatever of military preparation remains will only be turning the conflict which ended with the armistice. But there are yet several contingencies remaining that indicate trouble. The Poland question for instance. Germany seems insistent upon claiming Poland as her own; but Poland, when it does, will belong to the League of Nations, and that will be her protection. But on the whole, it is possible to hope better of Germany when she sees how the league of nations will work.

Spirit of the Press

Doubtful Use of Technicalities.

As might perhaps have been reasonably expected, a vigorous attempt is being made, through technicalities of the law, to obtain writs of habeas corpus on behalf of aliens, and also foreigners holding first naturalization papers, who have been rounded up for deportation. The writs were withheld, but "without prejudice to further application."

If this is held to open the way to appeals through the courts the work of suppressing revolutionary and anarchist activities in the United States will be seriously handicapped. The writs do not spell disrespect to the United States courts; but delayed action tends to dull the teeth of the exemplary law which was enacted for the specific purpose of suppressing dangerous and treasonable propaganda.—Rochester Democrat and Chronicle.

More German Inconsistency.

On the one hand we have the beaten Huns parading their poverty, their humiliated pride, their suffering innocence of womanhood, childhood, appealing to Allied charity. The terms imposed upon them must not be too drastic. They have suffered enough. Destitute and helpless, they throw themselves upon the mercy of the court. And on the other hand they vote their first president Friedrich Ebert, a salary of 1,000,000 marks per year. Translated into American dollars this is very close to $250,000, or over three times the salary of President Wilson. If Germany can pay their chief executive three times as much as America it is reasonable to suppose that she also can pay her debts.—San Francisco Bulletin.

ANOTHER PROSPECTIVE VICTIM

RELIEF FROM NEURALGIA

Particularly in the case of persons having a tendency to anemia, or lack of blood, neuralgia is due to the failure of the blood to carry nourishment to a nerve. The most direct way to correct neuralgia is to build up the blood so that it can give the nerves the elements they need.

Mrs. Charles Hendry, of No. 1033 Adams avenue, Scranton, Pa., the mother of a fine family and herself the picture of health, was an intense sufferer from neuralgia for a number of years.

"The pain would come on at certain hours every day," says Mrs. Hendry, "and the muscles of my face would swell. I was nearly distracted with the pain. I had terrible headaches, my ears would ache and I would be up night after night putting applications on my face. My whole head was sore from the pain."

"I took Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for anemia when I was a girl in my teens in Scotland and when one of my friends told me a few months ago that the pills were good for neuralgia I gave them a trial. The result was so encouraging that I took the pills for three months and I haven't had an attack since."

"I am very grateful to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I no longer have the neuralgic pains, swelling of the face, nor headache and I can go to bed now knowing that I am going to get a good night's sleep."

A useful book, "Diseases of the Nervous System," will be sent free by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., to any address. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists or will be sent by mail, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box, six boxes for $2.50.

EXTRAORDINARY FEATURE

Gen. Pershing's Own Map Of The Great Argonne Battle

This splendid Map, in colors, was sent to THE LITERARY DIGEST by General Pershing, and occupies two full pages in the February 22d number. It is accompanied by a thrilling article drawn from the American Commander-in-Chief's own report of the battle, which was sent with the map. In this tremendous eleven days' fight in the Argonne forest 600,000 American doughboys faced the crack divisions of the German Army and put them to rout, capturing 468 guns and 16,059 prisoners. Never before was an American Army engaged in such a great battle, and never before in any battle did any army face such almost unsurmountable obstacles.

This unusual Map made by the army cartographers at headquarters in France during the progress of the great push will be invaluable for preservation. The position of every Division engaged on every day of the advance, and in some cases the morning and afternoon positions on the same day are clearly shown; the heavy German defense systems that were broken are clearly indicated, showing the irresistible impact of the American push. Every River, Railroad, Wagon-road, City and Town in the Meuse-Arnonne region is plainly given.

In a million American homes this number of "The Digest" containing the splendid Argonne Battle Map will be read with interest. Every returned soldier who fought in this great offensive and every relative of a hero in this great drive will be particularly eager to have "The Digest" this week. As no extra copies will be printed, we advise you to go to the news-stand NOW and get yours before they are all sold. Other features of striking value and interest in this number are:

WONDERFUL RESULTS AT 70 FROM INTERNAL BATHS

"Within the last month have had wonderful results and all inflammation has nearly subsided. I could hardly expect a woman over 70 to receive benefit from trouble of long standing as quickly as a younger person. Money could not buy my 'J. B. L. Cascade' if I could not get another."

It is difficult to believe how many internal troubles internal bathing will relieve until you realize that physicians agree that 95 per cent of human ailments are caused by accumulated waste in the lower intestine.

The "J. B. L. Cascade," the scientific method of internal bathing, removes, in a perfectly natural way, all poisonous waste, and has been so successful in promoting health that over half a million intelligent Americans are now using it regularly.

It is the invention of Chas. A. Tyrrell, M. D., of New York, who for 22 years was a specialist on Internal Bathing and it is now being shown and explained by Hudson Avenue Pharmacy, R. L. Williams, proprietor, 322 Hudson avenue, corner Oak street, Newark, O.

They will give you on request a very interesting booklet on Internal Bathing by Dr. Tyrrell, "Why Man of Today is Only 50% Efficient."

Ask for it today and know more about yourself and your functions than you ever have before.

CHILDREN HATE PILLS, CALOMEL AND CASTOR OIL

Look back at your childhood days: Remember the "doses" mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

With our children it's different. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well-founded. Their tender little "insides" are injured by them.

If you child's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing, give only delicious "California Syrup of Figs." Its action is positive, but gentle. Millions of mothers keep this harmless "fruit laxative" handy; they know children love to take it; that it never fails to clean the liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach, and that a teaspoonful given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups. Beware of each bottle. Beware of counterfeiters sold here. See that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

WOMEN EVERYWHERE

New Haven, Conn.—"For two years I suffered with a female weakness, pains in my back and painful periods, and I was so weak and tired that I was not able to do my work. A friend told me to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it gave me great relief. My pains left me and I am now able to do my work and feel fine. You can publish my testimonial and if your Vegetable Compound does others as much good as it has me I will be very much pleased."

The reason Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is so successful is because it contains the curative, strengthening properties of good old fashioned roots and herbs, which act directly on the female organism.

There are women everywhere who long for children in their homes yet are denied this happiness on account of some functional disorder which in most cases would readily yield to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Such women should not give up hope until they have given this wonderful medicine a trial, and for special advice write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of 40 years' experience is at your service.

COURT SETS ASIDE LAFFERTY DEED

Conveyance of $10,000 Farm Was Made While Owner Was Incapacitated By Illness.

In the case of Francis Q. Lafferty vs. Frances Phalen, the common pleas court rendered a decision in favor of Lafferty. He brought the suit asking the court to set aside a deed to a farm valued at about $10,000 near Johnstown. He stated in his petition that the deed was made by him to Miss Phalen while he was at Mt. Carmel Hospital, Columbus, for an operation, and that at that time he was mentally unfit to execute the deed. This was denied by Miss Phalen, she alleging that Lafferty knew just what he was doing and that the transaction was based on a valuable consideration, care and attention rendered, and to be rendered to Lafferty. The court set the deed aside. Notice by Miss Phalen's attorney was given of her intention to appeal the case to the court of appeals. The bond for appeal was fixed at $300.

The case of Viola Coffman vs. C. L. V. Coffman was on trial in common pleas court on Monday. The suit is a divorce and alimony proceeding, appealed from the probate court.

The following letter, written January 16, is brief, but eloquent and convincing. It will have marked weight especially among sufferers from grippes after-effects, for Mrs. McGill is widely and favorably known in her community. She wrote:

"Nerv-Worth Co.—Having used your Nerv-Worth for a run-down nervous condition, caused by influenza, I cheerfully recommend Nerv-Worth to any person who is suffering as I was. One bottle has convinced me that it is a wonderful remedy for nervous people."
